About Saqi Books

Saqi is a leading independent publisher of trade and academic books on the Middle East and North Africa. Publishing in a wide range of fields, from history and gender studies, to art and literature, Saqi is the go-to place for conversations on the region's most pressing issues, and to discover its rich cultural heritage. Some of our bestsellers include The Crusades through Arab Eyes by Amin Maalouf, Beyond the Veil by Fatema Mernissi and The Arabic Alphabet by Nicholas Awde and Putros Samano. We are also proud to bring out in English translation the best in new and classic Arabic literature, including works by Naguib Mahfouz, Mahmoud Darwish, Adonis and Nawal El Saadawi. Saqi was awarded the IPG Diversity Award in 2013, the British Book Industry Award for Diversity in Literature in 2009 and the Arab British Culture and Society award in 2008.

AN IMAM IN PARIS

Account of a Stay in France by an Egyptian Cleric, 1826–1831

Rifa'a Rafi' al-Tahtawi

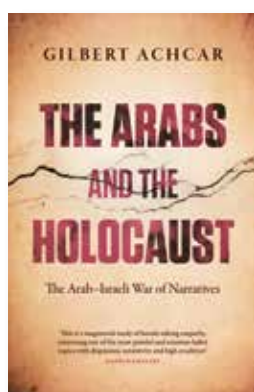

Translated by Daniel L. Newman

One of the earliest and most influential records of the Muslim encounter with Enlightenment-era European thought, introducing ideas of modernity to his native land. In addition to its historical and literary value, al-Tahtawi's work offers invaluable insight into early conceptions of Europe and the 'Other'. As vibrant and palpable today as they were over 150 years ago; informative and often acute, to humorous effect.

BELIEVING WOMEN IN ISLAM

Unreading Patriarchal Interpretations of the Qur'an

Asma Barlas

Offering a historical analysis of religious authority and knowledge, Barlas shows how, for centuries, Muslims have read patriarchy into the Qur'an to justify existing religious and social structures. In this seminal volume, she takes readers into the heart of Islamic teachings on women, gender and patriarchy, offering an egalitarian reading of Islam's most sacred scripture.

ISLAMIC ART AND THE MUSEUM

Approaches to Art and Archaeology of the Muslim Work in the Twenty-First Century

Edited by Benoît Junod, Georges Khalil, Stefan Weber and Gerhard Wolf

Challenges existing notions of research, methodology and analysis of Islamic art and investigates the extent to which socio-historical and anthropological approaches result in new analytical perspectives.

This important study also examines the difficulties that need to be overcome when presenting Islamic art to avoid reducing the objects merely to the visual and aesthetic.

THE ARABIC ALPHABET

Nicholas Awde
Putros Samano

BESTSELLER

Anyone wishing to learn Arabic faces a formidable initial problem: the alphabet. This vital resource proceeds step-by-step through all the letters of the Arabic alphabet, showing the sounds they stand for and how they are combined into words. Readers will find that progress is rapid and will be surprised at the relative ease with which they master the first steps in learning this increasingly important world language.

‘Demonstrates the letters in easy-to-follow, stroke-by-stroke diagrams. Excellent value.’ Library Journal

THE QUARTER

Naguib Mahfouz

Foreword by Elif Shafak

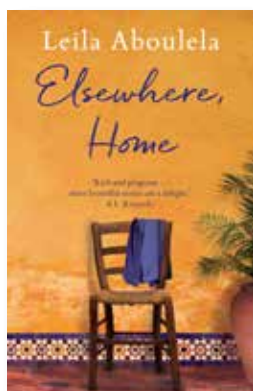

This collection of stories by pre-eminent Egyptian writer Naguib Mahfouz was recently discovered among his old papers. Found with a slip of paper titled 'for publishing 1994', they are published here for the first time. Resplendent with Mahfouz's delicate and poignant observations of everyday happenings, these lively stories take the reader deep into the beating heart of Cairo.

ARABICITY

Contemporary Arab Art

Edited by Rose Issa

Arabicity reflects on four decades of the aesthetic, conceptual and socio-political concerns of contemporary Arab artists. Beautifully produced, it features over 200 artworks by fifty Arab artists including Bahia Shehab, Ayman Baalbaki, Hassan Hajjaj and Raeda Saadeh, who explore their cultural heritage with humour, visual poetry and great warmth.

These artists challenge the confines of their identity, resisting stereotyping and reshaping the parameters of their cultural traditions. In their diverse media and subject matter, their works reflect the pulse of the region.

REMBRANDT, VERMEER AND THE DUTCH GOLDEN AGE

Edited by Blaise Ducos & Lara Yeager-Crasselt

This exhibition catalogue presents the finest pieces from one of the most important private collections in the field, The Leiden Collection, New York, alongside a selection from the Louvre's own holdings.

Alongside Rembrandt, artists such as Jan Lievens, Gerrit Dou, Frans van Mieris, Frans Hals and Johannes Vermeer were prolific during this time. Here, their collective work provides a dazzling glimpse into the Dutch Golden Age.
